

Ken Farrow

1946-2008

THE SUDDEN death of Ken Farrow is a great loss to Scottish diving. Ken was an inspiration and mentor to many divers. Through his career he held many high level positions in the British SubAqua Club. Nationally he served as Vice Chairman, Council Member, and National Diving Council Member where he edited the newsletter.

Locally he was chairman of Scotfed and until a few years ago organised a very successful conference for Scotfed. National Coach for Scotland, a First Class Diver, National Instructor, Instructor Trainer and IANTD Advanced Technical Diver. Ken was also a very good photographer and writer and SCOTTISH DIVER will miss his regular contributions and help whenever asked. Both he and his wife and dive buddy Alison spoke at the ScotSAC conference in Oban.

At that conference they covered different aspects of diving with a rebreather and although Ken had achieved more than most of us in diving, his enthusiasm to learn new skills and pass his experience on to others was inspiring.

Ken was great company his passion for life was infectious and anyone spending time with Ken either in a bar or on the deck of a dive boat would come away the richer for the encounter. He will be missed but also fondly remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing him and our thoughts and condolences are with Alison his wife and dive buddy.
